FROM THE COACHES BOX

Welcome back coaches! I hope you had a productive summer and are excited about the upcoming season. We look forward to working with you.

Along with continuing the traditions we are known for, the IBCA has some new initiatives for this year. As a result, we need you to become involved in the process because it will take even more coaches to get these things accomplished. Please return your membership applications for your entire coaching staff prior to the beginning of the season.

Following is a brief summary of the new challenges that we are pursuing. First of all, even though we have over six hundred women's coaches as members of the IBCA, it is our goal to increase the voice of the women's coaches within our organization. For this to happen, we need more women's coaches to join the IBCA. We plan to increase the number of women's coaches that serve as district representatives and on our board of directors. Please contact me or your district representatives if you have questions as we proceed in this endeavor.

Another new challenge we are happy about is our goal to become more involved in the Indiana All-Star process. Pat Aikman will provide you with details in another article in this newsletter. We are eager to partner in what has been one of the pillars of Indiana high school basketball.

In addition, the IBCA has begun discussions with officials' associations to discuss the evaluation process for officials working the state basketball tournament. We need to become part of the solution and be supportive of those officials working hard to provide us with professional service based on the values of integrity, sportsmanship, and quality.

As always, under Coach Witty's leadership as the IBCA Executive Director we continue to experience positive changes. We will strive to continue the enhancement of our association and our profession.

Finally, show your support to our sponsors. Our partnership with New Balance has proven very worthwhile to the IBCA. Please show them your patronage and try their products. They have a great shoe and sporting line for basketball and provide excellent service when you need them.

Most importantly, let's all remember why it is we coach. We have to be about more than just winning basketball games. We have a great responsibility to teach our players the skills necessary to win in life. Good luck to you this year and I hope you have many victories on and off the court.

In His Court,
Wayne Barker

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In January every IBCA member head coach will receive information on how to nominate the best players they have seen from their area, (including their own) for the following recognition:

- * Underclassmen & Senior All State Teams
- * Top 100 Underclassmen Boys' & Girls' Showcases
- * Junior All Stars
- * Indiana All Stars
- * Academic All State
- * Junior Mannies & Marion Crawley Scholarships

Also during January ballots for District Coaches of the Year and District Representatives election ballots will be mailed. Check your mail carefully, complete the nomination forms, follow the instructions, meet the deadlines and return your nomination forms to the appropriate committees. Don't hurt a deserving candidate's chances for selection because you forgot to join the IBCA, or the nomination letter got buried on your desk and you didn't get the information to the committee on time. Your effort in fulfilling these professional responsibilities is appreciated.

Yours for better basketball,
Steve Witty
IBCA Executive Director

The IBCA is proud to have New Balance as one of our primary sponsors. In early September all boys' and girls' head coaches should have received a New Balance flyer in their membership packet. ## HOOSIER BASKETBALL MAGAZINE HOSTS TOP 40 WORKOUT

BY: GARRY DONNA

Forty of Indiana's best 2006-2007 senior boys', as well as 40 of Indiana's best senior girls', high school players will be invited to participate in Hoosier Basketball's 2007 Top 40 Workouts. Ten alternates will also be invited to participate in each work out.

The 26th annual Girls' Top 40 Workout will be at Ben Davis High School in Indianapolis on April 15, 2007.

The 20th annual Boys' Top 40 Workout will take place at Pike High School in Indianapolis on Sunday, April 29.

Both Top 40 Workouts will begin at 1:00 p.m. and will include two sessions – 1:00-3:00 p.m. and 3:30-5:30 p.m.

The two workouts are coordinated by Hoosier Basketball publisher Garry Donna. Mike Armstrong of Perry Meridian and Jodie Whitaker of Lawrence North will serve as on-court directors of the 2007 Girls' Top 40 Workout, assisted by IBCA-member coaches representing all of Indiana. Brebeuf Jesuit coach Leo Klemm, assisted by IBCA-member coaches, will be the Boys' Top 40 on-court director.

These workouts give the state's outstanding seniors a chance to meet and compete as well as afford college coaches an opportunity to observe them against top quality competition.

For further details, call Garry Donna at (317) 925-8200.

INDIANA ALL-STARS

BY: PAT AIKMAN

There will be a change in the selection process for the 2007 Indiana All-Star basketball teams, according to game director Patrick Aikman of the Indianapolis Star.

Though the Indiana teams have been doing very well under the decades-old previous system (Indiana has gone 15-3 in the boys games in the past nine years and the girls have finished 24-8 in the past 16 years), the switch to all-day tryouts offers a more concentrated evaluation of prospects and also resolves some other timing issues.

The most significant change will involve separate all-day camps for the girls, tentatively set for March 4, and for the boys, tentatively set for March 25. As presently envisioned, 32 players will be invited to each camp. The all-star head coaches and their assistants will direct the camps with additional coaches from the IBCA. Final decisions on the two squads' personnel will remain with the game director and the All-Star Coaches.

An All-Star ballot will be mailed in February to solicit votes for Miss Basketball and Mr. Basketball and to get an advisory vote on the state's best male and female players from coaches and media. Additional nominations will be solicited from IBCA Coaches' representatives. Final invitations to the tryouts will be sent to players as soon as the voting and nominations have been reviewed.

Previously final selections were made after the completion of the girls and boys Top 40. Often this meant the selections were not announced until late March or early April for the girls and early May for the boys, delaying ticket sales, promotion and advertising to school with prospective candidates. It also delayed ordering uniforms, shoes and other equipment, often until there were less than three weeks left in the school year.

In-season scouting, all-state teams named by media and coaches, and recommendations from coaches and others will continue to be considered in the team selection process.

The Top 40 events for boys and girls, it is expected, will continue as usual under their long-time sponsor.

Moving tryout and announcement dates ahead by weeks will also result in the earlier announcement of the boys' and girls' All-Star coaches and sites for exhibition games with the Indiana Junior All-Stars.

In 2006 games Indiana's girls came from behind in Bowling Green, led by Ashley Barlow of Pike with 23 points and 12 rebounds, to win 71-64. Amber Harris had seven game-saving blocked shots in the final minutes. Dee Dee Jernigan of East Chicago Central added 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Luke Harangody, Andrean, scored 16 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to lead the boys to a relatively easy 90-74 win. Chris Kramer, Huntington North, and Vaughn Duggings, Pendleton Heights, and Mike Conley, Lawrence North, added 15, 15, and 12 in the win that came without the services of Mr. Basketball, Greg Oden, out with surgery.

VIEW FROM CENTER COURT

BY: ROGER DICKINSON

Nothing stands still and that old adage holds true for the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. Attendance at the museum increased this past year and that is pleasing. In addition, repair projects have been undertaken and display cases added in an effort to keep the only statewide high school basketball facility in the nation on the forefront of maintaining excellence.

The sidewalk on the south side of the property had dropped due to water washing away some of the fill that laid under the walk. Therefore the area was trenched, perforated pipe was added and the water is now being harmlessly drained away. Damaged areas of the walk have been replaced and repaired to make it like new once again. The driveway and parking lot have been sealed in an effort to preserve the life expectancy.

Inside the building a total of 16 display cases have been added in the Enshrinement Hall. This will take care of the needs for future inductees for the immediate future. Adding of the cases has caused a need to realign some of the other casework within the building. A new display for a quick glance of the state championship girls' games from 1967 through the present is in the works. Another display in the works is to illustrate the shooting form of one of Indiana's all time great shooters, Rick Mount. In addition, a number of the exhibits are changed periodically in an effort to always have something new and different available for viewing.

Please be assured the staff members at the Hall of Fame are always open to receiving basketball memorabilia. It is a known fact that many folks have such items stored away in their closet or attic. Rather than such items being discarded at a later date basketball fans are encouraged to donate the items to the Hall of Fame where they can be displayed in order to enrich the rich heritage and tradition of Indiana's game, basketball.

The latest memorabilia acquisition was a UCLA basketball jersey, number 44, which was donated by Mike Warren. Warren was a super star at South Bend Central High School when he graduated in 1964. He went on to serve as the only two-year captain for Coach John Wooden at UCLA. The hardwood standout helped lead the Bruins to a total of two NCAA Championships. Today, Warren is a movie actor and producer in Hollywood.

The official start of the 2006-2007 basketball season is quickly approaching and all that I can say is, bring it on. The Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame proudly sponsors the City Securities Hall of Fame Classic each year. The girls' tournament will be held on December 28 and the boys' outing will be the next day. All games will be played in the largest and finest fieldhouse in the world, the New Castle Fieldhouse. This year's line up is as follows:

City Securities Hall of Fame Classic

Girls' Teams

December 28, 2006

10:00 A.M.	New Castle vs Franklin Central
12:00 Noon	South Bend Washington vs Heritage Christian
6:00 P.M.	Consolation
8:00 P.M.	Championship

Boys' Teams

December 29, 2006

10:00 A.M.	New Castle vs Vincennes
12:00 Noon	Valparaiso vs Indianapolis Cathedral
6:00 P.M.	Consolation
8:00 P.M.	Championship

The tournament would be an opportunity for you and your team to watch some of the best individual players and basketball teams fire it up this season. If you are interested in attending, please give me a call and a special priced ticket will be made available for coaches and players.

Good luck for a successful 2006-2007 season.
